

SWANA Ontario Safety Summit

Collections Systems — Safe Vehicles, Safe Drivers

In partnership with the City of Toronto, the Ontario Chapter of SWANA invites you to join waste professionals to focus on safe collections operations

SWANA Safety Summit Series—Why now?

Das Soligo, SWANA Ontario Safety Ambassador and Manager of Solid Waste Services, County of Wellington

Jim McKay, General Manager, City of Toronto Solid Waste Management Services Division

City of Toronto's Collections Safety Program— Issues, Trends, and Concerns

Ali Golbabai, Sr OHS & Disability Management Consultant, City of Toronto

Slow Down to Move Around Safety Awareness Program

Rob Cook, Executive Director, Ontario Waste Management Association

Driver and Pedestrian Safety Technology Pilot Project for Driver and Pedestrian Safety

Dominique Charlebois, Senior Research Engineer & Project Coordinator, Transport Canada

WorkSafe—New Brunswick Safe Waste Collection Strategy

Lynne Duplessis, Occupational Health Safety Program Lead, WorkSafe New Brunswick

Perspectives on the Waste Management Industry

Vivien Wharton-Szatan, Provincial Coordinator, Ontario Ministry of Labour

The Importance of a Corporate Safety Culture

Aaron Johnson, Area VP, Eastern Canada, Waste Management

Use of Video Cameras and Proximity Warning Devices in Collection Fleets

Randall Soutter, Director Strategic Accounts, FleetMind Solutions

Safety Matters—Driving for Change

Colin Vidler, Manager of Collections, City of Hamilton

Safety Forum—Your Chance to Ask Questions and Discuss the Issues

Moderator: Das Soligo, SWANA Ontario Safety Ambassador and Manager of Solid Waste Services, County of Wellington

Closure

Emil Prpic, SWANA Ontario Chapter President and Manager, Recycling and Waste Disposal, City of Hamilton

FRIDAY, APRIL 20, 2018

Etobicoke Council Chambers
339 The West Mall, Etobicoke
Registration opens at 9:00 a.m.

Registration fee: $99
Email office@swanaontario.org to register. Seats are limited.

